Hello Paul,

The Zelezniks lost their appeal. Attached is their Notice of Deficiency. Please petition the court on their behalf within the 90-day time frame.

Brian and Jessica, Please know that Paul Jones is very good at his job as a tax court attorney. Neldon Johnson will pay for Paul's fees. I will keep you informed as we go along. I think your case will be heard a few months from now. Probably the earliest would be next June or July. Thanks for your patience. I think we are in good shape- so stay positive. Regards, Greg

Hi BJ and Greg

GREG – PLEASE EMAIL US TO CONFIRM RECEIPT.

Attached is the IRS notice denying BJ's appeal request.

It is dated 12/17/15. A request to contest this in appeals court must be made within 90 days. As discussed previously, I will not be handling this. The assigned attorney must make this request.

Please forward this to the appropriate party to take care of. I am assuming it will be the law firm handling all respective cases.

BJ – Now that this will be handled with the tax court attorneys, my role will be limited. However, I am always available to provide any documents requested.
